Trial Advocacy Seminar & Trial Competition For Law School Students

Trial Advocacy Training: Oct. 12-13, 2024, 9 a.m.–5 p.m.

Trial Competition: Oct. 19-20 and 24

Interested in becoming a prosecutor or curious about exploring the option?

Join a FREE Trial Advocacy Training led by the leadership of the Montgomery County District Attorney's Office. Learn from top instructors, including First Assistant District Attorney Edward F. McCann Jr., Deputy District Attorneys and office leaders. Topics include:

- Openings and Closings
- Effective Evidence Presentation
- Direct and Cross Examinations
- Ethics and Courtroom Decorum

The two-day seminar features hands-on practice with a real homicide case, guided by the Office DAs who prosecuted it. The following weekend, teams of two law students will compete in a mock trial, with the final round on Thursday, Oct. 24, 2024.

This seminar is open to all current law school students. The trial competition is open to twelve 2Ls and 3Ls, chosen and assigned to teams by the DA's Office.
